

captive series
wholesale information

description: the captive series is a set of individual, single garment, releases. each piece pays tribute to strategically selected celebrities that have been incarcerated in the past. the focus of the project, however, is more so to commemorate the hype and cultural support that builds up when a person of high influence is imprisoned. a perfect example would be when drake paid tribute to meek mill in concert by wearing a "free meek mill" t-shirt during the few months that he was behind bars. essentially, the captive series is a non-chronological exploration of hip-hop culture through the imprisonments of influential celebrities and the buzz that it generates.
